Notes for JOSEPH J. KAUFMAN:

May I pay tribute to my father-in-law? I was his only daughter-in-law. My own father died when I was in my early teens and when I married into this delightful family, Joseph Jacob Kaufman became a father to me. At that time he was in his late sixties, lean and square of shoulder-belying the years of hard work he had done.

Mother Kaufman once said, "Dad is sometimes very stubborn." But many times he would yield to the family pressure with a dimpled smile. His devotion to God gave his family security and confidence.

While celebrating Lady Liberty's birthday in 1986, our thoughts turned to Dad. We visualized a very young lad coming to America through Ellis Island, and then homesteading with his folks on the plains of South Dakota and later moving to Kansas-always planting, raising, and harvesting wheat.

In 1914 he moved his family to Porterville, California. My husband was a baby of five months, the youngest of his three children. Dad planted an orange orchard and before the trees reached bearing age, their house, barns and belongings burned to the ground. He carried his family through good years and years when the crops froze. Then, when he passed retirement age, he looked for a new frontier. He and my mother-in-law moved from the foothills of Porterville out into the valley where he planted a beautiful peach orchard and raised acres of snowy white cotton.

Dorothea S. Kaufman,
Daughter-in-law

[Obituary of Patricia Ann Ratzlaff]

Patricia A Ratzlaff

Mesa, Ariz. - Patricia Ann Ratzlaff, 79, joined her Lord in heaven and beloved husband, Matz (Milford) on May 28, 2013. She entered into eternal peace surrounded in love by her children and grandchildren who were the light of her life. She was born June 23, 1933 in Hutchinson, KS, and graduated from Hutchinson High School in 1951 and always called Kansas her home.

Pat and Matz left their farm life in Pretty Prairie, Kan., and moved to Tempe, Ariz., in 1983 after they found out they were going to be first time grandparents and were so proud of that role and the opportunity to be near their grandchildren.

Pat retired from Arizona State University in 1998 after 15 years of employment and focused on her family, home and travel throughout Arizona with Matz by her side. Her favorite role was that of a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother and she always said her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were her life. Her love for the family ran deep and was obvious throughout the years, but it was the holidays that she always made so extra special. She was the happiest when the whole family was together and the house was filled with holiday spirit, her famous Christmas sugar cookies, love, laughter, surprises and the pitter patter of little feet. Her love, sacrifices and cherished family memories will live on in the hearts of her family forever.

She is survived and immensely missed by her loving children: Rhonda "Sierra" Byers (Anton) of Sedona Ariz., Greg Krause (Jane) of Chandler, Ariz., Karen Body (Lamont) of Chandler, Ariz., and Michael Krause (Jodi) of Gilbert, Ariz. Loving grandchildren: Lesley Krause, Laurie Winter (Glen), Ritter Krause, Morgan Krause, Anjelica Body and Major Body. Loving great grandchildren: Shaeley Araujo, Dove Winter and Lincoln Winter. The heavenly family angels who preceded Pat in death are: loving husband Matz, beloved daughter Deborah Krause, loving mother, Yvonne Moses and beloved brother Ralph Laster.

A private family memorial is being planned in lieu of flowers, condolences and contributions (Payable to Michael Krause) can be sent to Pat's son Michael (address below) who is handling the charitable distribution of monetary gifts. Michael Krause, 4231 E San Remo Ave., Gilbert, AZ 85234.
